

Daniel M. McElhinney

Partner

San Luis Obispo Office
dmcelhinney@lozanosmith.com
805.471.7080

Overview

Daniel M. McElhinney is a Partner at Lozano Smith. He provides counsel to school districts in a variety of areas, including labor, employment and governance.

Experience

Mr. McElhinney regularly advises clients on matters related to employee relations, collective bargaining, investigations, Brown Act, Public Records Act, student issues and First Amendment rights. He is also a certified mediator and has experience with alternative dispute resolution. Mr. McElhinney can assist in effective pre-litigation problem solving.

Presenter Experience

Mr. McElhinney is a frequent presenter on behalf of clients and statewide associations. Representative topics include the Uniform Complaint Process, AB 1266, sexual harassment prevention, and best practices for non-discrimination and legal protections for transgender students.

Community Involvement

As an AmeriCorp member in the Central Coast Volunteer Corps, Mr. McElhinney worked with nonprofits developing new programs and building organizational capacity.

Education

Mr. McElhinney earned his law degree from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law and his B.A. from Saint Mary's College.

Practices

Labor and Employment
Governance
Student
Litigation

Education

J.D., University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law
B.A., Saint Mary's College

Admissions

California