

Litigation Attorney

Los Angeles Office

Opportunity

Are you a passionate legal professional eager to make a meaningful impact in the field of education and public agency law? We are currently hiring for an Attorney in our thriving Litigation practice area in our Los Angeles office. We are dedicated to advocating for educational institutions and public agencies, and we are seeking a talented and motivated Attorney to contribute to our mission.

As an Attorney in our Litigation practice area, you will play a pivotal role in representing our clients in a wide range of complex litigation matters. Collaborating closely with experienced attorneys, you will have the opportunity to engage in all phases of litigation, from case strategy development to trial representation. Your work will contribute directly to advancing the legal interests of our education and public agency clients.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct legal research and analysis to provide well-founded guidance to clients.
- Draft pleadings, motions, and legal documents with a high level of precision.
- Engage in discovery activities, including document review and deposition preparation.
- Collaborate with partners and senior associates on case strategy and trial preparation.
