

Jennifer Bradlee

Senior Counsel

Sacramento Office
jbradlee@lozanosmith.com
916.329.7433

Overview

Jennifer Bradlee is Senior Counsel in Lozano Smith's Sacramento office and co-chair of the firm's Public Finance Practice area. Her areas of expertise are public finance, facilities and business, and local government. Ms. Bradlee advises clients on a variety of transactional matters affecting school districts and local public agencies including facilities funding, public agency bonds, bond elections, public contracts, annexation, community facilities districts, lease-financings, taxation, and other business transactions.

Ms. Bradlee supports administrators and governing boards with matters concerning conflicts of interest, the Brown Act, records retention, development of board policies, and the Public Records Act.

Additional Experience

Prior to joining Lozano Smith, Ms. Bradlee has experience working with the international tax planning division of a Fortune 10 company. She has experience dealing with taxation issues for multi-national corporations including treaty interpretation, sub-part F exposure and tax planning strategy for M&A transactions. Ms. Bradlee has also worked for a Bay Area law firm as an associate representing professional sports teams.

Articles and Professional Affiliations

Her articles include "It Is About Control: Progressivism, FATCA and Global Law" published in Perspectives on Federalism Vol. 8, 2016. Ms. Bradlee is a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers.

Education

Ms. Bradlee earned her Juris Doctor from Santa Clara University School of Law. She earned her LL.M. in Taxation from the University of San Francisco School of Law with a specialization in international taxation. She received a B.A. in History (cum laude) from Saint Mary's College of California.

Practices
Facilities & Business
Public Finance

Education
J.D., Santa Clara University School of Law
LL.M., University of San Francisco School of Law
B.A., Saint Mary's College of California

Admissions
California