LOZANO SMITH ATTORNEY BRINGS EXPERIENCE TO CITY OF SANGER

Jeff Kuhn, Shareholder in Lozano Smith's Fresno Office, was recently noted for his outstanding work as the Sanger City Attorney.

In the November 17, 2011 posting on the Sanger Herald, an article listed Kuhn as adding "a very calm voice to a very aggressive and ambitious council." As the new City Attorney, he has been able to call upon his public sector experience to bring new knowledge to the City.

He shares a bit about himself in the article, stating that he knew from a young age that he wanted to become a lawyer. "Like a lot of kids, I became interested in public policy and politics and how to make the world a better place," Kuhn said.

Sanger's Mayor, Joshua Mitchell, stated that he is satisfied with the work Kuhn is providing, and the way he is teaching new things to the Council. "'The council feels very confident in him,' Mitchell was quoted saying. 'They have been very impressed and intrigued with his advice. He definitely brought a whole new wealth of knowledge to the city.'"

Mayor Mitchell is also pleased that Kuhn is a part of the Lozano Smith team. As stated in the article, "City Manager Brian Haddix said Kuhn's association with Lozano Smith is a plus because the firm brings a plethora of knowledge when dealing with city legal issues."
