

James N. McCann

Partner

Fresno Office
jmccann@lozanosmith.com
559.431.5600

Overview

James N. McCann is Senior Counsel in Lozano Smith's Fresno Office. Mr. McCann provides a variety of services to the firm's clients, with a focus on public labor and employment, privacy and data security, and election law.

Experience

Mr. McCann serves as Deputy County Counsel for the County of Madera in addition to representing municipal and school clients of the firm in various capacities. Mr. McCann has represented public agency clients in litigation and administrative hearings. He also regularly advises clients on a wide range of transactional legal issues including labor negotiations, employee investigations and disciplinary matters, contract negotiations, the California Voting Rights Act and related matters, and data breach notification obligations for public agencies. Mr. McCann has additionally conducted state-mandated trainings for public agencies, including on the topics of sexual harassment, conflicts of interest, and ethics.

Education

Mr. McCann earned his Juris Doctor from San Joaquin College of Law, and was recipient of the Witkin Award. In addition, Mr. McCann received his M.A. in Conflict Resolution from Fresno Pacific University and his B.A. from California State University, Fresno.

Community Involvement

Mr. McCann serves on multiple religious non-profit boards.

Practices

Labor & Employment
Municipal
Technology & Innovation

Education

J.D., San Joaquin College of Law
M.A., Fresno Pacific University
B.A., California State University, Fresno

Admissions

California